

REINFORM

Cyprus: The NO and the bailout despite the NO

After the rejection of the first bailout deal by the Parliament (read more about this here)

Cyprus Government agreed to a significant restructuring of its banking sector, along with other measures such as tax rises and privatisations. The measures are designed to raise billions towards the bailout. Read more...

School students and bank workers are among those protesting in Cyprus, after the country reached a painful bailout deal with European creditors. Read more...

BIO.ME. factory in workers' hands

Representatives of the workers of BIO.ME. (Greece) talk about their attempt to take over the factory and run it as a cooperative of workers. Watch the video...

Demonstrations in the Netherlands

"No refugees on the streets or in jail"
Saturday, March 23
Over 2000 people participated in the demonstration in Amsterdam to support the refugees' struggle for a normal life. Read more...

Employees of multiple distribution center of the big Dutch supermarket chain Albert Heijn protested on Wednesday, March 20 against high work pressure and for a new collective agreement.
Read more...

Police Repression in Greece

For the sake of private interests in gold mines

The riot police invaded Ierissos, northern Greece. The citizens of this area are the core of the resistance against the destructive goldmine of Eldorado Gold. The police is beating citizens indiscriminately. They fired tear gas canisters in the school. Read more...

Against peaceful demonstrators

The Greek riot police attacked with tear gas people of the "indignants" movement gathered in Syntagma square for a peaceful demonstration. The police was isolating and abducting demonstrators for no reason, immobilised them and kept beating them.. Watch the video...

Solidarity to AMSTA employees

People working in the AMSTA healthcare and special treatment centre are fighting for the future of healthcare. Demonstrate with them on Saturday, April 6 in The Hague. Read more... Send letters of support. Read more...