

REINFORM

Education under attack in Southern Europe - Students on the streets

Massive Social Protests in Italy: against government reforms, Renzi's Jobs Act, cuts to public education and austerity measures. They paralyze Italian Cities and Face Police Repression. Read more

Clashes in the Greek universities

-Riot police attacked protesters trying to enter university buildings. Read more
 -Students protested against repression and the declining situation at the University of Athens: the Administration spends on hiring security but fails to pay cleaning services. Massive high school student protests all over Greece: "Money for the education, not the bankers" See photos

More anti-austerity demonstrations: Belgium, The Netherlands, U.K.

6 November 2014, Brussels:
 120.000 people demonstrated against the austerity policies of the government.
 See video

14 November 2014, the Hague:
 Demonstration against students' allowance threatening poor students with debt. Read more NL

London, 19 November 2014:

Demonstrators chanted slogans such as "books not bombs" and carried banners saying "free education, tax the rich". More

Neonazi Violence in Zurich

This incident highlights the danger of the rise of neo-Nazism and Fascist violence in our time, even in a city with thousands of immigrants who contribute substantially to the prosperity of the society. EN/GR

17 November 1973

Greece: Commemorating the students' revolt against the junta in 1973. Read and Film

Solidarity with Kobane!

Kobane Diary: 4 Days Inside the City Fighting an Unprecedented Resistance Against ISIS More

Upcoming events

- 4/12: Basta! Info evening Crimmigration and child detention. Organised by KSU and AAGU in Utrecht
- 5/12: Stand up against apartheid! On Mandela day we oppose apartheid in all its forms. Organised by Back to Palestine in Amsterdam

